CIA office of Scientific Intelligence Survey Report by Stuart Hedden, IG; 18 pp; photostat negative Tabs a thru b

ABSTRACT

This survey pointed up problems in inter-agency liaison and failures in Collection activities. To alleviate these problems it suggested a revised NSCID which would allocate responsibilities of OSI more definitively and a revised statement of OSI functions.

In the Tabs it noted recourse to UK experience in arriving at recommendations and at analyzed sources of information. [DDi later on 3 March referred the Study to the State Department pending IAC review.]
